NOTICE.

ANOTHER EXCITEMENT .- MADAME SONTAG, the Songstress, equal, it is said, and far more beautiful than Jenny Lind, has, we noticed the other day, arrived on our shores, and met with a brilliant reception. She cannot fail to produce an excitement in the land of the West,

"Whose banner of stars o'er a world is unrivall'd," Speaking of stars and other brilliant affairs, we are reminded that in passing J. S. RHODES' brilliant Dry Goods Store, our eyes were dazzled by the most brilliant stock of goods he has ever yet received, and his crowds of customers are not less astonished by the cheapness than the splendor of his goods. The cash system works wonders with De Laings, Chintzes, Alpacas, Silks, Satinetts, &c. Call and see if it don't.

WHEELING IN THE ASCENDANT .- One of our citizens who returning yesterday from the Cleveland Fair, informs us that over one hundred of our people were there, and that Wheeling productions, lthough they had but too limited a representation, were conspicuous and elicited universal admira-

THAT FLAG. -One of the largest and most beautiful national flags ever seen in the city unfurls its majestic stars and stripes in front of our office. It was made by Mr. N. Nelson, a very skillful manfacturer of flags, banners, awnings, &c. That representation of GEN. Scott, "as large as life" and quite as natural, from Mr. J C. Harbour's, is not to be sneezed at, either.

MEADE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.-We invite atention to the advertisement of the Primary Department of this Institution. Much of the credit fendowing and placing upon a permanent basis this institution, is due to the enterprising citizens of Wellsburgh. It is an acquisition to Western Virginia, which should receive the fostering care and encouragement of her people.

HERR ALEXANDER recently offered a " splendid old watch" for the best conundrum in Pittsburg. The conundrum was produced, so was the watch, hich splendid "gold watch" proved to be a brass ne worth four dollars and twenty-five cents .-One with as much brass as that fellow possesses an afford to dispense brass watches for a year of Sundays without materially aiminishing his stock.

THE NEXT CONGRESSIONAL ELECTION.-We inrt the communication of "Marshall," and soliit for it that attention which the subject deserves. is time the Whigs should be moving in the mat candidate for Congress, it seems to the mind of e present writer, that there should be some conrt of action among the Whigs of the district to seet a standard bearer for the contest. For this urpose, we would respectfully suggest to the higs of Marshall to meet at the Court House of id county, at an early day to determine upon a sitive course of action.

We would respectfully suggest the name of W. . Willey, Esq., of Morgantown, in this connection, a suitable person to represent the district, and nose nomination will be universally concurred in by the River counties. Marshall.
